

PANORAMA KINO THEATRE COMPANY OVERVIEW:

Founded by Swiss-Australian performer and director Tom Greder and based in Switzerland, Panorama Kino Theatre is a group of multi-disciplinary international independent artists collaborating since 2015. Offering stand-alone shows, creative development workshops & collaborations with artists & schools leading to performances or specially commissioned projects, Panorama is a unique & innovative performing format that challenges current styles of interactive and site-specific theatre. Panorama aims to empower audiences by changing perspectives and delivering interactive, co-creative collaborative experiences. Panoramas celebrates public space and the interactions which take place in them.
